1. The Preliminary amendments submitted by Applicants on November 15, 2004 and May 21, 2005 have been received and entered.

2. New claims 3-15 have been added.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The closest prior art to the present invention is Lim et al. (U.S. Patent No. 6,081,460). Lim et al. disclosed an integrated circuit having an external terminal coupled to a power voltage level detector. Lim et al. failed to show or suggest the combination of an external terminal receptive of a voltage, a voltage detector circuit for detecting a voltage of the external terminal, and a protective transistor connected between the external and a ground, wherein the protective transistor having a drain region and a gate electrode surrounding the drain region as in claims 1-10, or the protective transistor having the drain and the gate electrode disposed in overlapping relation with an end of the drain region as in claims 11-15.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
